

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
STATESVILLE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

SEBASTIAN A. MORRIS

Defendant.

DOCKET NO. 5:13cr63

CONSENT PROTECTIVE ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on Defendant's motion to share discovery with a retained expert. By consent of counsel for the Defendant herein and the Government, the court concludes that an order should be entered in this case governing access to certain discovery material.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. Pro. 16(d), that defense counsel may provide copies of the discovery in his possession to his retained expert at Flashback Data, L.L.C., but only in complete accordance with the following restrictions:

1. Any copy of the discovery material will be used solely for litigation purposes in the instant manner and the expert who has been shown discovery pursuant to this Order shall not discuss or disclose the contents thereof to anyone other than the members of the defense team (counsel, paralegals, investigators, or secretarial staff) who disclosed such materials.
2. Defense counsel shall take appropriate measures to ensure that its expert is provided with a copy of this protective order and understands the limited purpose for which the material is being disclosed and the prohibition against further dissemination.

3. All such material will be maintained in a secure location at all times to prevent access by any unauthorized individual.

4. Following final disposition of this matter, all such material shall be promptly returned to the United States.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in the event the terms of this Order are violated, defense counsel shall advise opposing counsel immediately of the nature and circumstances of such violations.

SO ORDERED.

Signed: October 22, 2013

David C. Keesler
United States Magistrate Judge
